A FEW WORDS ABOUT OURSELVES!

The very difficult fine art of cooking tasty and nourishing food was developed & perfected under the patronage of Emperors & Empresses. Cooking Royal Food is our hereditary profession. Our forefathers enjoyed the prestigious employment in the royal kitchen. The end of this prestigious calling came with the end of Mughal dynasty during the last Mughal Emperor Bahadur Shah Zafar. Our great grandfather a chef par Excellence, was the pioneer to bring the Royal food to the common man. In 1913, he spread the Shahi Dastar-Khwan outside the walls of Royal Red Fort. Under the shadow of Jama Masjid, Haji Karimuddin inherited the art and ideas to his son Haji Nooruddin and his grand sons. Karimis growing by the grace of "ALLAH" today the fourth generation of Royal Chef brings the choicest Mughlai delicacies.
